

SEPARATED IN DEATH

A City Lies Between Herbert
Bates and Miss Gentry.

ONE BURIAL YESTERDAY

Remains of the Young Man Laid at Rest in Hollywood at 4:30 P. M.
Funeral of the Young Lady
This Morning.

The remains of Herbert B. Bates now rest in Hollywood. The body of Miss Rena H. Gentry, whom he slew before ending his own life, will be laid to sleep in a new section in Oakwood Cemetery. In death the two will be separated as far as possible. Mr. Frank T. Bates, Jr., the father, owns a section in Hollywood, where two members of his family are buried. Herbert Bates' body was interred there yesterday afternoon.

The untimely death of his daughter was the first taking away of any member of Mr. J. W. Gentry's family, and hence there was no burial section. One was taken in Oakwood Cemetery, because of its short distance from the Gentry home, where the grave could be constantly cared for.

The funeral services over the remains of Mr. Bates were conducted at the house of his parents, No. 2218 East Broad Street, yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Dr. John Hannon, pastor of Union-Station Church, was the officiating minister. The intimate relatives of the family, friends and neighbors were present. Messrs. John W. Bates, Harry D. Bates, W. B. Bates, Dr. W. D. Willis, Thomas G. Pretlow, D. E. Bates, Ernest Bates and Michael Willis, all cousins of the deceased, were the pall-bearers.

The funeral of Miss Gentry takes place from Union-Station Church this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Dr. Hannon, who was her pastor also, will conduct the service. The pall-bearers will be: Active—Messrs. Vivian Farrar, William A. Willerby, John R. Halstead, Paul K. Atkinson, L. Murray Slaughter, Robert F. Halstead, Robert O. Smith and C. M. Hogg.

Honorary—Messrs. Fred Minson, Roy Temple, Hugh B. Bates, Norvell W. Atkinson, Linwood Minson and Oscar Pitts. Mr. Bates is a near relative of the dead youth. The body will be borne from the church to Oakwood Cemetery for interment.

CASES AGAINST JOHN FLEMING

Charged With Housebreaking.
Other Matters Before Justice John.

John Fleming, colored, promises to prove to be a man for whom the police have been waiting for some time, and Detective Wren and Policeman Wiltshire think they made a good haul when they arrested him.

Justice Crutchfield thought so, too, and on the charge of feloniously entering Kirkwood's restaurant, No. 504 East Main Street, and the Smith Premier storerooms next door, he was sent on to the grand jury, and held, besides, as a suspicious character for twelve months. There will probably be other cases against him.

Ninety days was what Scott Gaines was given for taking a watermelon belonging to P. L. Crouch.

James Bradson, a young white man, was charged with hitting his mother, a timid, shrinking creature. The charge will be heard to-day.

James Hubbard paid $20 for being disorderly on a street car.

The Smith was sent on to the grand jury for cutting Martha Ann Taylor and, besides, was put under bonds for twelve months.

The case of George Dance, charged with trespassing on a street car, and with assaulting Charles Benton, will be heard tomorrow.

It cost Robert Monroe only $5 for being drunk and disorderly and threatening to kill Clara Monroe.

Bernard Leiser was sent down for thirty days for being disorderly on the street.

I have heard it rumored lately that the Republican State ticket in 1935 will be L. Lewis, for Governor; C. G. Causey, for Lieutenant-Governor, and Hugh Gordon Miller, for Attorney-General. Judge Lewis is unquestionably the strongest Republican in Virginia. Captain Causey is popular with the rank and file, but he does not stand well with the organization, as evidenced by his manifesto of last spring in which he charged that the Republican leaders in Virginia were opposed to any great increase in the number of voters. Hugh Miller is believed to be more thoroughly in accord with the organization than any of the three gentlemen mentioned.

A Virginia Democrat, who is now in Washington, said last night that ex-Governor Tyler's mind was still made up to be the candidate for the United States Senate unless the present Democratic primary plan should be abrogated in the meantime.

This was the Governor's unqualified declaration in an interview printed in this correspondence about February 21, 1933. Senator Martin and ex-Governor Tyler are the only avowed candidates, although it seems to be well known that Governor Montague will run. He has never said so for publication. There has been more talk in the past months of Hon. William A. Jones than of any other candidate. It is asserted positively that his mind is not yet made up one way or the other. Hon. A. C. Braxton told me last week he did not at present have any plans whereby to enter public life. The impression made upon me was that such a life had chances for him. But Mr. Braxton, though he has a very large law practice, is a poor man, and he probably feels that public life is a luxury he cannot afford.

One of the hottest fights for a nomination in Virginia next fall will be the one which will be pulled off by Hon. W. E. Rhen, and Hon. J. C. Wysox for the honor of leading the Democrats in the contest for the seat now held by Hon. Campbell Slemmons from the Ninth District.

It is certain that Judge Rhea will want to try conclusions with Colonel Slemmons again. "I don't know yet," was the response of Mr. Wysox when I asked him the other day if he would be a candidate. Then he added in his characteristically frank way: "But I expect I will."

DOC BACON TO PAY THE PENALTY

Governor Montague yesterday, after a most careful consideration of the case, refused to grant a reprieve to Doc Bacon, the negro who, with Andrew Finch, another negro, was convicted in the County Court of Mecklenburg on July 24 of criminal assault, and sentenced to be hanged at Boydton today. Bacon and Finch had been in the Petersburg jail for safekeeping since their trial, and they will be hanged at Boydton, the county seat of Mecklenburg, to-day.

It seems that since the confinement of

The inclination of everybody in Washington to laugh at the position in which the government is placed because of the reported murder of the American vice-consul at Beirut is unmistakable. A strong American fleet is on its way to Beirut and can't be stopped, much as the home government would like to turn it back. It now develops that Mr. Magellan was not even shot at, but that he thought the firing of guns and pop-crackers by a party of serenaders at a wedding was an attack upon the august representative of the American government. It is probably not the first time a serenading party has caused trouble, though there is no record of one having caused international complications before. It is recalled, however, that Minister Leishman has been decidedly slow in acting in imperative matters herebefore, which makes his zeal in transmitting an erroneous report all the more noticeable.

An official of the Department of State said to-day that the government would make no attempt to recall Admiral Cortes, as it was thought best to have vessels there, even though the report of the murder of the representative of this government were untrue. But to the average man such action will appear as an attempt to stand pat, even though in the wrong.

A Tazewell county Republican, who was here to-day, said he could not explain the failure of the Virginia Republicans thus far to make nominations for the General Assembly. There are some candidates, but the Republicans have not generally nominated, as Representative Slemmons said yesterday, "because they are afraid that in May last Mr. Slemmons publicly stated that a nominee would be put up in every legislative district. It is agreed that Mr. Slemmons thought he spoke truly, but it is by no means certain that his fellow-leaders in Virginia want much increase in numbers of the rank and file. It would make too much showing at the pie counter. Mr. Slemmons is the only one of them who needs numbers, as he has to come back to the Legislature with a majority, and will not retain his place through favor of the administration.

I have heard it rumored lately that the Republican State ticket in 1935 will be L. Lewis, for Governor; C. G. Causey, for Lieutenant-Governor, and Hugh Gordon Miller, for Attorney-General. Bacon and Finch had been in the Petersburg jail for safekeeping since their trial, and they will be hanged at Boydton, the county seat of Mecklenburg, to-day.

It seems that since the confinement of the prisoners in the Petersburg jail Finch has exonerated Bacon, and declared that he swore falsely against him at the trial. Mr. James H. Ralphy, of Petersburg, counsel for the Commonwealth, presented a petition in support of the Commonwealth's case, and Governor Montague on Monday, asking that a respite be granted in order that time might be had for making application for a new trial. The Governor gave the case the utmost consideration, and yesterday wired Mr. Ralphy that he did not think it wise for executive interference.

SQUIRE LEWIS' COURT

He Fines a Number of Persons for Trespassing.

Squire James T. Lewis, of Henrico county, yesterday tried a number of parties for trespassing and riding upon the cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, and he placed a fine upon each of them.

Those accused were: Will Jones, Arthur Trent, Charles Harris, Will Cox, Jim Yarbrough, John Caushens and Fred Morris, and they were all fined $25 and required to do three days' hard work. Fred Morris, whose case was postponed for ten days.

KOWELLE LIKELY TO BE UNOPPOSED

The City Democratic Committee will meet at Murphy's on Saturday night to complete arrangements for the coming municipal primary.

At noon on the same day the time for the entrance of candidates into the circuit clerkship race will expire, and it is quite likely that Mr. E. M. Rowelle, the popular and efficient incumbent will have no opposition.

WILLIAM YOUNG SENT ON FOR BURGLARY

Before Squire G. W. Thomas, of Henrico, yesterday, William Young, a negro, was sent on to the grand jury on the charge of breaking and entering the dwelling house of Mrs. Bradley, on Twentieth Street, in Fairmount, some time ago. The exact charge upon which Young will have to answer to the grand jury is that of burglary.

YESTERDAY EVERYBODY
HERE WAS MOVING

Yesterday was moving day. To the casual observer it seemed that every other family was changing its location. Wagons of all kinds were in demand. There were by no means enough to supply the demand.

Fortunately, the day was a pleasant one for moving, there not being sufficient rain to hurt and the absence of dust being the cause for congratulation.

Inspect the Militia.

The inspection of the Virginia militia by Inspector-General J. Lane Stern will begin Tuesday, September 13th and continue until the 15th of October. The Company A, of the Seventeenth Regiment, Richmond, will be inspected September 15th; Company B, of the Regiment, September 16th; Company C, September 17th; Company D, of Charlottesville, October 6th; Company E, of Lynchburg, September 18th; Company F, of Staunton, September 19th; Company G, of Alexandria, October 20th; Company H, of Richmond, September 19th; Company I, of Farmville, September 20th; Company J, of Staunton, September 21st; Company K, of Fredericksburg, October 1st. The hour for the inspection is 8:30 o'clock. The various companies were recently inspected by United States army officers under the provisions of the Dick Act, incorporating the militia in the Federal service.

Property Transfers.

Richmond: Charles E. Freeman and wife to Robert H. Freeman, 32 feet on east side Culvert Street, between Main and Floyd Streets, $50.

Robert L. Turpin's trustees to Christopher Smith, 20 feet on north side Lehigh Street, $45.

Henrico: Lucy C. Scott to Annie C. James, 6.75 acres on New Market Road, about 7 miles from Richmond, $35.20.

Judge Ingram Named.

Governor Montague yesterday designated Judge John H. Ingram, of the Corporation Court of the city of Manchester, to hold the September term of the Law and Equity Court of this city for Judge E. C. Minor, who is still in ill health and unable to sit.

Failed of a Quorum.

The Board of Supervisors of Henrico county failed of a quorum yesterday, owing to the heat of the political campaign now on. There will be called meeting of the board some time after the primary contest is over.

Paying Pensions.

At the auditor's office yesterday several of the clerks were engaged in making out checks for pensions under the acts of 1900 and 1902. A big rush is expected in the next few days, and it will require many weeks to complete the task.

Case Dismissed.

Squire J. T. Lewis, of Henrico county, yesterday dismissed with costs the case against Charles Jones, charged with trespassing upon the property of Charles Clemens.

Dr. J. N. Upshur Here.

Dr. J. N. Upshur has returned to the city and will be in New York.

The Tone of a Piano

is not the only thing to be considered. The question is, "How long will it retain its tone?" The only way to decide this is to buy a piano that has an established reputation, and one that has been handled in your midst for a quarter of a century. We are in-day handling pianos that we have sold for nearly twenty-five years and have stood the test of time. We can refer you to these as monuments of the lasting qualities of our instruments. BINFORD TELLS INSIDE HISTORY

Candidate for the Legislature
Talks of U. S. Senatorial Fight of 1933.

There was an interesting incident at the Democratic meeting held at Barton Heights on Monday night, at which the candidates for the Legislature and county officers were making addresses to the voters. Captain W. J. Binford, who represented the county in the House in the session of 1933-'34, and who is a candidate for the same honor again, was speaking of his record as a legislator, when some one in the rear of the hall arose and rather sharply intimated that the ex-member, though instructed for Fitz Lee for United States Senator in 1933, had voted for Martin.

Captain Binford made a warm reply. He declared that he had voted for General Lee, and called upon Captain J. H. O'Bannon, who was present, to substantiate his statement. This Captain O'Bannon did in the most prompt and positive manner, and then, Captain Binford, proceeding, declared that the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, of which he was then an employee, made demands upon him to vote for Martin, but he had declined to do so.
